Young people giving young people aged 13-19 the opportunity to showcase their work to the public, as well as giving entrants the chance to win cash prizes!

Young Curators

We are a team of students from the Isle of Wight, working under the guidance of Island artist Tim Johnson and Quay Arts' Exhibitions Organiser Georgia Newman to curate an exhibition in The West Gallery, Quay Arts, of young Island artists' work. We are working on every aspect of curating the exhibition - from designing the brief and selecting the work, to installing in the gallery and marketing the show, right up to the opening.

Quay Arts Young Curators 2011 Exhibition Brief

'Where are you going?'

The Young Curators are looking for works from Island based young people aged 13-19, which respond to the theme 'Where are you going?' Your work can reflect the theme in any way you choose - we are looking for imaginative, perceptive and visually exciting pieces in any media from individuals, groups or from schools. Your interpretation does not have to be literal, or fully answer the question; you are open to explore the theme in any way you choose.

The Young Curators aim to select work that exhibits a range of mediums including live performance, film and installation work, along with drawing, painting, sculpture and print. We hope the work will be able to be enjoyed across different audiences. Pieces must be a maximum of 1m x 1m (2D) or 3 x 3m x 3m (3D) and must have been created recently.

Successful applicants will have the option to put their work up for sale (with 25% commission). There will also be PRIZE MONEY for selected artists, so it's definitely worth giving it a go!

1st Prize- £100

2nd Prize- £50

3rd Prize- £25
